

Official launch of the European Public Sector Award 2011

Monday 17 January 2011, Brussels

The EPSA 2011 team is pleased to invite you to the official launch of the European Public Sector Award!

Come and join us on 17 January at the Berlaymont building in Brussels. The opening speeches will be delivered by Mr Maroš Šefčovič, Vice-President of the European Commission, and by Professor Dr Marga Pröhl, Director-General of EIPA.

Do not miss this excellent networking opportunity and find out everything about the new EPSA themes and the most important milestones for this edition. Registrations should be made by 12 January at the latest. The call for applications will be opened simultaneously and will run until Friday 25 March 2011.

Participation is free of charge.
